Demystifying the Common Core State Standards for Mathematics

October 15, 2014, 4:30 – 7:00 pm

University of San Diego
Mother Rosalie Hill Hall, Warren Auditorium

Phil Daro, a coauthor of the Common Core State Standards, will discuss its intention and the authors' vision. In the second part of the seminar, invited panelists from two San Diego school districts and the San Diego County Office of Education will discuss what districts are doing to implement the Standards and support teachers. This will be followed by a moderated discussion about the issues.
