

SEEE Seminar Series

A forum on how STEM education interrelates with economics and social equity.

Waiting for Superman?

A Panel Discussion about Society and Education in the United States

Thursday, April 21, 2011

4:30 p.m. – 6:30 p.m.*

Distinguished Panelists

Hugh "Bud" Mehan

Professor of Sociology and Director of UCSD's Center for Research on Educational Equity, Access, and Teaching Excellence (CREATE)

Tad Parzen

Executive Vice President, Price Charities

Mildred Phillips

Principal, San Diego's Metropolitan Regional Career and Technical High School

Larry Rosenstock

CEO and Founder, High Tech High

We invite you to a dynamic discussion that will begin with panelists reacting to a movie that has triggered national debate about the status and future of education in the United States.

This is our 2nd forum on how STEM education interrelates with economics and social equity.

Join us at Mother Rosalie Hill Hall

School of Leadership and Education Sciences (SOLES), University of San Diego

Please RSVP at www.SeeSeminar.com, where additional information is available.

3:00-4:30 Viewing of Waiting for Superman (Optional)

4:30-5:00 Reception

5:00-6:00 Panelist Discussion

6:00-6:30 Audience Discussion

Sponsored by:

SAN DIEGO STATE UNIVERSITY

